

Terms and Conditions

1. Who can enter?

- All students currently undertaking any interior design course or related course at any level.
- All students who have completed or graduated from any interior design related course after 1st June 2013.
- Students who completed or graduated prior to 1st June 2013 must have less than one years experience in the interior design profession.
- All National Design Academy students past and present, subject to the same rules of eligibility.
- BIID student members, subject to the same rules of eligibility.
- Keen amateurs, subject to the same rules of eligibility.

2. Who may not enter?

- Interior designers with more than one year's professional experience are not eligible.
- Employees of the National Design Academy, NDA Private Clients or anyone connected with this competition, including any third party promotional partners (or members of their immediate families) are not eligible.

3. Personal Information

Personal data may be used by the National Design Academy and its associated companies for promotion and publicity purposes. This data will not be shared with third parties. By entering this competition, applicants are granting their consent.

4. Originality

All entries submitted to The NDA National Design Award 2014 must be the original creation of the applicant.

5. Final Decision

The judge's decision will be final and non-negotiable. We regret that NDA will not be able to provide individual feedback to entrants; however, the NDA will confirm safe receipt of all entries. All hard copies of work cannot be returned; therefore we recommend that you take copies of your work before submission.

6. Intellectual Property

All entries will become the Intellectual Property of the National Design Academy and Creatively Different Blinds.

7. Other

- The National Design Academy and Creatively Different Blinds reserves the right to contact participants of the competition.
- The National Design Academy reserves the right to change any element of the competition, the competition brief or the competition terms and conditions at any time. All entrants will be notified of such changes.
- Prizes may not be substituted or exchanged by the winner. The National Design Academy reserves the right to substitute a prize of equal or greater value if a featured prize is unavailable.